

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CIVIL ACTION NO. 12-11716-RWZ

GREGORY L. DOBLE

v.

MILLIKEN AND COMPANY,
JOSEPH SALLEY and JAMES McNULTY

ORDER

October 16, 2013

ZOBEL, D.J.

Plaintiff Gregory L. Doble, a sales representative for Constantine LLC and its successor, Milliken and Company, complains that the latter, Milliken, failed to pay him commissions he had earned selling carpets and other floor coverings Milliken had manufactured. The dispute grew out of Constantine's and later Milliken's inability to meet the specifications of a very large contract and plaintiff's resulting loss of commissions. The complaint alleges breach of an employment agreement, promises made and broken, and frequent errors by the accounting department. The matter is before the court on plaintiff's motion to compel interrogatory responses, further deposition testimony and production of documents (Docket # 27).

The motion is a broadside attack on defendant's responses to each set of requests and without sufficient detail to allow the court to address plaintiff's complaints.

Accordingly, the parties, who apparently did not meet and confer about the alleged overbreadth of plaintiff's discovery requests and defendants' failures to respond in full, shall do so forthwith. If any disputes remain thereafter the parties shall report such to the court together with a detailed statement of any remaining disputes in a form that allows the court to rule thereon.
